PUBLIC HEARING RELATIVE TO THE REVISED 2019-2020 DISTRICT WIDE SAFETY PLAN

Remarks Relative to the Purpose of Said Hearing by Superintendent of Schools

Mr. Kendall explained the district has a responsibility under state law to have a generic document that covers the district wide Safety Plan. Each school within the district does have a more specific plan pertaining to their building as well. Mrs. Luckie asked for an explanation of "shelter in place" versus "hold in place" within the document. Mr. Kendall explained when holding in place the students are not to travel in the hallways and sheltering in place may be used in the event of a weather disaster. The district could go about its normal school day, however students could not leave the building.
